INCREASING AWARENESS TOWARDS ROAD SAFETY, UMY COLLABORATES WITH JASA RAHARJA!

On (02/03), Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta has agreed to collaborate with Jasa Raharja through the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) For your information, Jasa Raharja is a state-owned company that provides social insurance for the protection of traffic accidents.

The signing of the Memorandum of Understanding was also attended by other universities in the Yogyakarta, such as the Universitas Islam Indonesia UII, Universitas Pembangunan Negeri Veteran Yogyakarta (UPNVYK) and Universitas Negeri Yogyakarta (UNY).

Furthermore, this collaboration allows students to get benefits from three Jasa Raharja programs: the Scholarship Program, the Internship Program, and the Jasa Raharja Youth Innovation Program. Munadi Herlambang, Director of Institutional Relations at PT Jasa Raharja, hopes that this collaboration will raise awareness among universities about the importance of traffic safety awareness.

"It is hoped that by signing this MOU, Jasa Raharja and Universities will be able to raise awareness, particularly among young people, about driving better and safer, thereby reducing the number and fatality due to accidents,"

INTERNATIONAL CULTURAL AND CULINARY FESTIVAL IS BACK! JOINED BY MORE THAN 25 COUNTRIES ACROSS THE WORLD

Remarks from Rector of UMY, Prof. Gunawan Budiyananto

In line with the credo of Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta "Young and Global". UMY once again held one of the most prestigious agendas this campus has ever held, the 7th UMY International Cultural and Culinary Festival is an annual UMY event to increase international exposure as well as to become a gathering place for international students who are studying in Yogyakarta.

The international Cultural and Culinary Festival, themed "Harmony Through Diversity," features three series of events: a street parade, a street kitchen, and a traditional performance competition. This event, held on (23/03) at Sportorium UMY, began with the Street Parade, which is a parade performed out by international students who are participants in the 2022 ICCF. Using the unique characteristics of their respective countries, the students parade from Postgraduates Building to the Sportorium, accompanied by a marching band that adds to the parade's magnificent impression.

After the participants arrived at the sportorium, they were directed to enter the sportorium one by one according to their respective countries. Towards the official opening of the event, the Director of the UMY International and Cooperation Affairs Office, Fitri Arofiati, S.Kep., Ns., MAN., Ph.D gave remarks. In this occasion, Fitri said "The ICCF this year is part of UMY's anniversary series. This is an annual program attended by international students not only at UMY but also in Jogja and its surrounding areas. This year, 67 students from more than 25 different countries around the world took part in this agenda. Turkish Embassy Ankara, French Embassy, Royal Thai Embassy, Embassy, and other international partners are also fully supportive." Fitri explained in her remarks.

After that, This event officialy open by the Rector of UMY, Prof. Dr. Ir. Gunawan Budiyananto, MP,IPM. In his remarks, Gunawan stated that ICCF is one of the programs to improve the international atmosphere. "ICCF is a program that cannot be separated from outbound and inbound efforts to improve the international environment".

To Concluded his remarks, Rector of UMY hope that this event will raise student awareness of the fact that they are a part of the world. "In addition, ICCF hopes that it can raise awareness among students that we are a part of the world".

1ST UMY - AUAP STUDENT ACADEMIC OLYMPIAD HELD SUCCESSFULLY WITH MORE THAN 170 PARTICIPANTS FROM AROUND THE WORLD!

UMY SAO Participants from Universities All Over The World

Top 3 Winner of The 1st UMY AUAP SAO

Competing is a significant element for human development. By competing, we can discover how far we could go and, of course, it can motivate us to do even better.

As a result, Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta partnered up with The Association of the Universities in Asia and the Pasific (AUAP) to host the first Student Academic Olympiad, which was held virtually.

Carrying the main theme Health Care System, this event was attended by 170 participants from various countries and higher education institutions in the Asia and Pacific region.

Taking place for two days on (29/03), the event was opened by remarks from the Rector of Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta and the President of AUAP, Prof. Dr. Ir. Gunawan Budiyanto, MP, IPM, stated that he supports this SAO activity and hopes that UMY will continue to participate actively in various AUAP activities and forums in the future. Dr. Peter P Laurel, President of AUAP, delivered the second speech.

On this occasion, President Peter encouraged the participants and expressed his hope that such an agenda would become a regular AUAP agenda.

On the first day of the Olympiad, participants were given 15 minutes to answer the questions. Then, AUAP will look for 30 people with the best scores who will advance to the next round. The 30 best participants will then undergo 2 series of competitions.

Just like the first round, the participants were given 15 minutes to work on the questions, and then they would enter an interview session with Dr. Elrjohn C. Gomez from Centro Escolar University and Dr. Kyungyong Kim from Daegu Health College, Korea.

The first day concluded with the selection of the top ten participants who will compete in the final round on March 30th for the top three spots.

The contestants went through two sessions of filling out questions and an interview session, both of which were guided by Dr. Elrjohn C. Gomez Centro Escolar University and Alvini from the Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences UMY.

After the competition, the AUAP Secretariat decided the three participants who won three main positions, namely Ryan Kenth Vallente from Bukidnon State University, the Philippines as 2nd Runner Up, Simranjit Kaur from STIK Sint Carolus Jakarta as Runner Up, and Samantha Agnes from San Pedro College Philippines as the winner of this Student Academic Olympiad.

Before the event was closed, the Director of Cooperation and International Affairs Office UMY, Fitri Arofiati, S.Kep.,Ns.,MAN.,Ph.D and also Secretary General of AUAP Dr. Ricardo Pama gave remarks.

Mrs. Fitri gave her appreciation to AUAP for initiating this agenda together with UMY and hoping that there will be another Olympiad with UMY. According to Pama, AUAP will make this SAO activity a routine activity for the association, of course with other interesting issues and themes.
